CALLING ALL BACH LOVERS

Bach in the Subways 2027

Sunday, March 21 – Wednesday, March 31

For J.S. Bach's 342nd birthday on March 21 musicians around the world will unite to perform free Bach in subways & public spaces, all day & all night, to share our love for our art form and sow the seeds for future generations of classical music lovers.

Musicians, organizers, and everyone else who wishes to spread the joy of Bach are invited to join us! Solos, ensembles, flashmobs and Bach marathons are all encouraged.

Join us as we fill the world with Bach!
